Welcome to the 2022 Sierra Nevada Horse Show Association Awards Banquet!

I speak not only for myself, but for the entire SNHSA board when I say that a highlight of every winter is being able to celebrate this evening with our members. I know that we all look forward to being able to spend this evening celebrating your successes, your achievements and the many goals that were accomplished in 2022. Congratulations to all of tonight's award winners.

They say "It takes a village," and when I look around the room tonight I realize just how true that is. The accomplishments we are celebrating tonight would not be possible without the support and dedication of the riders, parents, trainers, families, board members and sponsors that support not only our members, but SNHSA as a whole. I would like to extend my most sincere thanks to all of you, for without you we would not be gathered tonight to celebrate the accomplishments of so many.

Special thanks are due to the entire SNHSA Board of Directors, who work tirelessly all year long to keep the show season running smoothly, who are always ready to pivot when challenges arise, and who bring an endless supply of ideas and steadfast dedication. None of this would be possible without them.

2023 is here, and I know that no matter what it brings our way, I am excited to be stepping into it with the support of our SNHSA community. It takes a village, and I am so grateful that you are all a part of mine..

2022 SNHSA Ricky Evans Sportsmanship Trophy

In 2015, SNHSA started a tradition of recognizing an individual, junior, amateur or professional who exemplifies high-quality horsemanship, sportsmanship and integrity in our sport. The first honoree was Shelley Evans and to carry forward the legacy, she donated this perpetual trophy in 2016. In 2018, the SNHSA Board of Directors renamed the trophy to honor Shelley Evans and her beloved horse, Ricky, who died in 2018.

Congratulations to the 2022 SNHSA Ricky Evans Sportsmanship Trophy winner, Lisa Mays, who was nominated by Cori Egger.

Lisa embodies the spirit of this award in so many ways. Not only is she a kind, giving person with a big heart who is dedicated to her community - she is the epitome of a good sportsman. Whenever Lisa is ringside, she is cheering on her fellow competitors, is the first person to wish you good luck, congratulate you on a good ride, provide encouragement and always finds the silver lining, even if she's offering support for one of those "great recovery" kinds of rounds. Her horses' wellbeing always comes first, and she ensures that they are always set up for success when presented with new challenges or intimidating venues.

Lisa always carries a smile and offers "A Good Job" for all of the riders trying their best. Even when competing against each other, she makes sure to wish her competitors good luck - and she means it every time!

It is with great honor that we award the 2022 SNHSA Ricky Evans Sportsmanship Trophy to Lisa Mays! Lisa, the SNHSA Board salutes you!

The Ricky Evans Sportsmanship Trophy is dedicated to Shelly and Ricky Evans to honor all of the great horsemanship, sportsmanship and friendships within the SNHSA association.

United States Equestrian ~ The Sportsman's Charter

- ☞ That sport is something done for the fun of doing it and that it ceases to be sport when it becomes a business only, something done for what there is in it;
- ☞ That amateurism is something of the heart and spirit, not a matter of exact technical qualifications;
- ☞ That good manners of sport are fundamentally important;
- ☞ That the code must be strictly upheld;
- ☞ That the whole structure of the sport is not only preserved from the absurdity of undue importance, but is justified by a kind of romance which animates it, and by the positive virtues of courage, patience, good temper, and unselfishness which are demanded by the code;
- ☞ That the exploitation of sport for profit alone kills the spirit and retains only the husk and semblance of the thing;
- ☞ That the qualities of frankness, courage, and sincerity which mark the good sportsman in private life shall mark the discussions of his interests at a competition.

SNHSA, an Affiliate organization of USHJA, joined the USHJA Outreach Program in mid-June of 2022. Points from SNHSA local shows are submitted to USHJA for members who have signed up for the Outreach Program. Points from other USHJA Outreach Program shows are also tabulate and members throughout the country participated in the Program. SNHSA is in USHJA's Zone 10.

SNHSA members within the top 50 overall in Zone 10 were: MacLean Sennhenn (4th place), Caylin Garnett, Emily Guerard, Alyssa Janiga, and Layla Patlan.

All riders who have achieved 50 or more cumulative points will receive an email mid-January that has a link and will allow them to pick from ribbon, medallion, swag, or logowear for each medal level. There are different prizes for each level.
