COACH DANIEL STEWART

RIDING CLINICS SPORT PSYCHOLOGY SEMINAR VIDEO ANALYSIS ON THE FLAT AND OVER FENCES

Daniel Stewart is a former international team coach, mental-coaching consultant to many equestrian associations; has published four books on equestrian sport psychology, biomechanics and fitness; and is considered one of the worlds leading experts on equestrian sport psychology, athletics and performance... and he's coming to teach us!

His upbeat and empowering clinic and symposium is the perfect way for us to become more confident and courageous by learning how to overcome fears, failures and frustrations. It's also perfect for anyone who gets a bit nervous, experiences show jitters, struggles with mistakes or memories... or anyone who just wants to put a little more happy in their happy place!

Our clinic and workshops include a live Q&A's and book signing!
