“Horse Rescue Takes A Village”

by Landess Witmer, Shadowood Farm, Reno

US--The Shadowood Saddle Club in Reno has found a non-profit we want to support! As a small club of riders, horse enthusiasts, and pet people in general, for many years, we have just banded together to ride horses. But this autumn, the Shadowood Saddle Club donated items, bid on auction packages, and made monetary donations to help Reno's horse rescue, the Rockin KT Equine Redemption, located on Chuckwagon Road in Red Rock.

THEM--The Rockin KT Equine Redemption is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization rescuing horses from kill pens, feed lots and dangerous situations. Founder, KT Rose Smith, rescues, rehabs, retrains and rehomes horses. In her spare time, she works as a veterinary assistant and at Costco. KT currently has about 40 horses on her property. "Mommies and their babies, chronically crippled for life animals, unhandled yearlings, and abused and older horses," says KT. Her work is vital to our community, as some of the horses come from as close as the Fallon Feed Lot, others as far as Texas kill pens on the border with Mexico.

YOU--You can help by bidding on the 150+ items. You can share the auction on your social media platforms. You can donate a cash contribution on the auction, top right green DONATE button. You can sponsor one of her horses with special needs. You can adopt one of her rescued animals. You can tell others to adopt a horse from her, too. You can help KT with a visit to her rescue organization, "a Saturday with the Rescue Horses!" There is so much to do; YOU CAN HELP HOMELESS HORSES, TOO.

We hope you will consider the Rockin KT Equine Redemption horse rescue a worthy cause, too. The fundraiser for KT is: www.32Auctions.com/RockinKT

The Auction fundraiser ends Sunday, Oct. 25, 2020 at 6 p.m. PDT

"Your bids puts our horses in a better way."
