

SNHSA's Vision: To bring the joy of horse sports to as many people as possible.

2019 Issue #9

Dec. 20, 2019

Message from the President

As 2019 draws to a close, I would like to extend my warmest wishes for a wonderful Holiday season and a happy and successful New Year.

I want to personally thank you to all of you for a fantastic year, from the first show of the season in May to the Bernie Traurig clinic this December and everything in between. It has been my pleasure to watch SNHSA members enjoying their horses, forging new friendships and embracing the sport throughout the year.

The SNHSA board is working hard on the details for January's Year-End Awards Banquet and I would like to congratulate all of our 2019 Year-End Award winners. Don't forget that the banquet will feature a raffle for members who have filled out any of our surveys this year - so if you haven't yet completed yours now is the time to do so!

I would also like to remind all of our members that your nominations for the 2019 Ricky Evans Sportsmanship Trophy can be sent to SNHSA (email to Fall4apirate@gmail.com). This trophy recognizes an individual who exemplifies high-quality horsemanship, sportsmanship and integrity in our sport, and any SNHSA member may nominate another member for the award.

Please remember to take the time to enjoy the moments you spend with your family, friends and loved ones over the Holidays, and I look forward to seeing you all in the New Year!

~ Liz ~

Nominations sought for the Ricky Evans Sportsmanship Award Deadline: Dec. 31

Ricky Evans Sportsmanship Award

In 2014, SNHSA started the tradition of recognizing an SNHSA member, whether junior, amateur or professional, who exemplifies high-quality horsemanship, sportsmanship and integrity in our sport. The second honoree, in 2015, was Shelley Evans and to carry forward the legacy, she donated the perpetual trophy to SNHSA in 2016 to honor all of the great horsemanship, sportsmanship and friendships within our association.

For those who might not know, Reno lost two of its "greats" in 2018... Shelley moved out of state to pursue another career opportunity and to be closer to family; and sadly, her beloved horse, Ricky, died that year after an unexpected accident.

When riding Ricky, Shelley always had a contagious smile. She was instrumental in bringing joy and friendship to our equestrian community and such an amazing role model for all of us. With that sentiment in our hearts, the Board of Directors decided to rename this trophy, the Ricky Evans Sportsmanship Trophy, to honor of them both. Thank you, Shelley and Ricky for shining your light on our equestrian community.

ANY SNHSA member may nominate a fellow member for consideration of the Ricky Evans Sportsmanship Trophy by submitting a nomination letter. The nomination should name the person and provide examples of why they believe that person deserves to be awarded the Sportsmanship trophy award.

Nominations are due by Dec. 31 to Christina Brennan, a new Board member, at Fall4aPirate@gmail.com. The Board will then discuss and vote on who to honor with the 2019 trophy.

Past awardees:

- 2018 - Julianna Osmetti
- 2017 - Leslie Biederman
- 2016 - Wendy Brownlee
- 2015 - Shelley Evans
- 2014 - Adrianna Osmetti

SNHSA riders who attended the USHJA Nationals

SNHSA sponsored six riders to attend the USHJA Nationals as Affiliate member qualifiers. The event was held at South Point Arena and Equestrian Center in Las Vegas, Nov. 11-17.

USHSA Affiliate Hunter 2'

Alessandra Smit and Pot of Gold (Trainer - Liz Reader)

USHJA Affiliate Hunter 2'6"

Jenna McAmis and Allegro BF (Trainer - Liz Reader)
Ashley Myers and Gone At Dawn (Trainer - Liz Reader)
Julia Hansen and In the Mist (Trainer - Wendy Brownlee)
Laura Ann Moore and Lucca (alternate, Trainer - Sarah Mullins)

Here are some quotes from riders, trainers and parents who went to Nationals this year, representing SNHSA.

This season, my daughter, Julia Hansen, had the opportunity to qualify as an Affiliate competitor for the USHJA Nationals in Las Vegas. This was an incredible opportunity that neither of us will forget anytime soon. She was able to set the goal of qualifying early on and she worked towards her goal all season, but her hard work didn't stop there; as soon as she qualified, she raised the bar on her own and continued to work towards her goal.

Once we were in Vegas her nerves crept up as she realized the quality of the elite group of riders she was joining, but she was able to reflect on her hard work throughout the season and how far she and Misty had come as a team. We so enjoyed being part of the "Reno Team" in Vegas, the atmosphere was truly one of mutual support and encouragement. We were able to meet other riders from Reno and I was so happy as a parent to see her confidence grow and her spirit shine.

We had so much fun, Julia is already setting her sights for next year. I'm so proud of her hard work and dedication, most of all she overcame her own anxiety and doubts to compete to the best of her abilities, and I know this confidence will carry over to any goal she may set for herself in the future. Thank you to her trainer, Wendy Brownlee, for seeing her potential and thank you SNHSA, from the bottom of my heart! ~ Julia's mom, Mindy

The riders of Ironwood Events Center (Avery Ortiz and Abby Paulson) would like to thank SNHSA for believing in them and supporting them at USHJA Nationals. We enjoyed the support and camaraderie that the SNHSA team showed. ~ Annelise Applesest

The show in Vegas was so much fun and I am so grateful to have been able to attend! The experience was very valuable for both me and my horse. It's always a blast getting to explore the city with my barn mates as well! ~ Laura-Ann Moore

The Vegas show is unlike any other show I've been to! Showing in indoor arenas is so different. I love that there is so much to do outside of the show as it's a big city. Riding in the South Point arena is really cool! ~ McKenna Owen, who also competed at Nationals

~ 2019 Bernie Traurig Clinic ~ Sponsored by the SNHSA Junior Ambassadors

Bernie Traurig

Bernie Traurig Clinic Dec. 7-8, 2019

The 2019 Bernie Traurig Clinic was a successful Clinic with 18 horse/riders in the clinic and 8 rider/horse combinations taking a private lesson on Friday.

Saturday night's dinner and Q&A session with Bernie Traurig, hosted by Julie Winkel at Maplewood Stables, was attended by 25.

Contributed by Wendy Brownlee

We really lucked out this year and had beautiful weather for the Bernie Clinic. It was much warmer than last year.

Bernie started each group with a tack check and discussion about the importance of proper fitted tack and stirrup length. He started all the groups in a 2-point to let the horses' back' warm up in the cold weather.

He stressed a lot about the importance of poles and cavaleti exercises to work to develop your eye without too much concussion on your horse's body.

Day 1 - The earlier groups worked on the basics of track and pace. The last few groups worked on handy turns, transitions before and after jumps, counter-cantering jumps, proper transitions halting and backing.

Day 2 - Course day. Groups 1 & 2, consisting of Niya Kuhns, Pam Emmerich Alessandra Smit, Katie Caldwell, Jenna McAmis, Lisa Trujillo, Jolie Paddock, Cadence Lacroix and Hailey Childers, did a basic hunter course with lines set at straight forward distances between the jumps, with some added strides.

Groups 3 & 4 worked on bending lines and using the track and pace to change the number of strides between the jumps. Group 3, Chrysann Collatos, Maeve Delaney, Kate Kassity and Wendy Brownlee, started with a 5-stride set 3' long, left to a bending half stride 5 or 6 right across the diagonal, to a short stride across the diagonal, to an easy two-stride, left to another bending line set long and you could choose six or seven strides, then right to a long galloping oxer.

Group 4, McKenna Owen, Sierra Giesler, Jason Fish, Megan Feulner and Tiffany McCormack, had the same course but he added a liver pool, hogs back and changed the short four-stride to two-stride to a combination of four jumps set as a two stride to a one stride to a two stride. They worked on finished with a timed Jump Off.

The top 6 performing Junior Ambassadors in 2019 were Niya Kuhns, Katie Caldwell, Cadence Lacroix, Hailey Childers, Jenna McAmis and Jolie Paddock. They worked throughout the season, attending educational unmounted clinics, completing a work-study program and a horsemanship exam and earned fully sponsored rides in this year's clinic, thanks to the generous USHJA Grant and Julie Winkel.
